LOCAL NEWS.

SOCIETY OF OLD STUDENTS OF ST. JOHN'S ACADEMY. - The annual meeting of this Society was held at the Academy last night, but, owing to the extreme heat, was very slimly attended. The President, S. C. Neale, esq., took the chair and appointed a committee consisting of Messrs, R. L. Carne, J. T. Hill L. E Uhler and J. R Edelen to nominate officers. On their recommendation the following were unanimously elected, viz: President, S. Chapman Neale; Vice Presidents, Norval E. Foard, Maryland; Dallas Johnson, M. D., Distriet of Columbia; Theodore H. Ficklin, A. M., Virginia; Martin William Wigg, South Carolius; Hugh H. Dean, Georgia; John Harper, Mississippi; Timothy J. O'Sullivan, New York; Milton H Price, Illinois; Cornelius J. Hagan, West Virginia; Henry L. Mathews, Texis; B. Callender White, Louisiana; James Murray, Tennessee; Jordan W. Lumbert, Missouri; F. Willick Miller, Ohio; Ernest D. Lambert, California; R Cary Gover, North Caroliua; Henry J. Nevett, Recording Secretary; Charles E Stuart, Corresponding Secretary, and Lycurgus E Uhler, Treasurer.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Henry J. Nevett, Charles E. Stuart, Thomas A. Broadus, Benj. H. Lambert and George S. Smith the Executive Committee, and, on motion of J. T. Hill, the constitution was so amended as to fix the annual meeting on the first Monday of December, and the Society adjourned to that

THE UNION REVIVAL MEETINGS. - The prayer-meeting yesterday was well attended again, notwithstanding the intense heat. The service at night, partly because of the heat and also in the hope of reaching many who would not come into any churco, was removed to the cease, on the 4th of July. There is fine feed-open air. The nice grass plat in the postoffice ing for marsh birds in the grounds bordering yard was kindly tendered for the use of the meeting. There was not sufficient time to make proper preparations; only a small number of seats provided; no opportunity to get together a strong band of singers, which is so needful. The idea of open-air meetings at all attacked with sunstroke at Tye River on was a great novelty to many who came and had Thur-day. He was taken to Lyuchburg, and had no notice of the change. Nevertheless it is now lying to a critical condition. is believed that as many as a thousand persons ere in the meeting during portions of the service, and the majority staid throughout the November, 1870, to the 18th day of January, whole. The requiry meeting was held at the close in the basement of the 2d Presbyterian Church, just scross the street, where a number rose for prayer, and it was sought to guide them to the immediate acceptance of the Saviour. It is expected to night to have a large number of seats provided, and other arrangements to make the services more pleasant

POLICE REPORT .-- The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since vesterday afternoon: Emma Jackson, for assaulting Virginia Blanheim, both col red, was fined and discharged; David Manley, committed to jail in default of the payment of the fine imposed, for disorderly conduct, was released upon efficient.
a promise to quit the city; Thomas Douglass, son of George P. Douglass, colored, for impudent and rowdyish behavior, in addition to being well thrashed by Capt Herbert Bryant, whom he had assailed, was fi ed by the Mayor to the full extent of the law and put under bonds to keep the peace, and locked up in the station house until the fine was paid and bail was obtained. His father not relishing such a termination of the case had a warrant i-sund, by Justice Whittlesey, for the arrest of Captain Bryant, but at the examination at one o'clock this afternoon the case was dismissed at complainant's cost, who still not satisfied, said he would appeal to a higher court.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. -- Mr. Dennis B. McMahon, heretofore residing upon a portion of the estate of the late Dr. F. R. Wills, disappeared from his home on Wednesday night, the 9th inst., in rather a mysterious manner. He had been at work all day in the field and retired to bed as usual. But in the morning he was missing. The cern house key was found on the mantlepiece (together, it is said, with a ten dollar note) but he has not been seen or heard of since. Mr. McMahon was a perfectly sober and industrious man and has a wife and six or seven children. The family are ignorant of his whereabouts, and his sudden disappearance has created no little talk among the neighbors .-- Port Totobacco Independent

The missing man was formerly a resident of this city, and was, for a long time in the empley of Mr. P. H. Hooff. He is the brother inlaw of Mr. Geo. Green, the oysterman.

SHOOTING AFFAIR. - A man named Lemue Weedon, was shot by Charles Goodman, in Washington, early this morning, at the house of a woman named Jenny Javios, on Thirteenth street, the quarrel originating about a woman. Weedon received two shots, one of which took effect in the left leg below the hip, and the other in the right leg, directly below the abdomen. After being shot, Weeden jumped from the second story window to the pavement below where he was picked up and taken to Entwistle's store, and from there to the Central guard house, where medical aid was rendered. Weeden says he does not blame Goodman for shooting him, and is willing to forgive him. Goodman was arrested.

The Sun says Mr. Benedict, who is a partner of Col. Henry B. Beecher in the insurance business, and whose sister is the Colonel's wife, rode up Baltum street from Fulton avenue in Mr. Beecher's carriage last evening. Mr. Beecher's handsome bays were attached, and the family coachman was driving. Two little children were on the seat with Mr. Benedict. Baltum street runs past the court house, on the jury room side, and is separated from it by a plat of open ground about 100 feet wide. The carriage was stopped opposite the room, and Mr. Benedict, looking up at the windows, waved his handkerchief. Then be rode around the corner into Livingston street, where the drowned. The jury, of which A. C. Kell was carriage was again stopped, and he once more closely scrutinized the windows. A Sun reporter, who had seen this strange occurrence from a lower room of the court-house, went out to learn which jurors were at the windows, Power, of Loudoun county, went mad one day but he only saw an unrecognizable man moving

NEW YORK, June 26 .- When Judge Neilson adjourned the court last night it was until eleven this morning, but long before that time the court-room was packed with spectators anxiously awaiting any developments which might take place. Mrs. Beecher entered the room with ex Judge Porter. Mr. Titton divides his time between Judge Morris' office and the Judges' chambers. The jury now stand nine to three for acquittal, but nothing of a reliable nature can be learned about them. They are confined in the room on the west side of the top floor of the court-house.

The Saranac.

NEW YORK, June 26. - A letter from Victo ria, B. C., says after landing from the Saranac the officers and crew were put on short rations; huts were built of boughs of trees, hammocks and a few boat sails saved from the wreck. At daylight Her Majesty's steamer came in sight, and cheer after cheer went up from the wornout sufferers. Ten minutes later the Otter rounded the point, causing fresh excitement. Upon the appearance of the Myrmidon the assembly was sounded and orders issued to break camp and trausfer everything to that vessel. An hour later everything saved from the wreck, together with the officers and crew, were em barked on board. The Myrmidon transferred a portion of the officers and men to the Otter. The vessels left for Esquimalt and arrived there safely on the 23d.
